Ballot for health plan is assailed

Voting methods planned for this metropolitan area's new Health Systems Agency board have been assailed by public officials and others as the Dec. 26 deadline for board membership nominations draws near.

Among the critics is State Senator Sam Vadala of this district. In a statement that appears on today's Press-Record editorial page, he opposes the plan for a single polling place located in St. Louis.

He also urges that 30 of the 60 board members reside in Illinois, that the balloting be limited to qualified voters, and that elected officials be allowed to occupy more than the 12 positions allocated to the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

Planning for the new agency has been carried out by the Inter-Agency Coordinating Group for Health Systems Agency Development.

Participants in this group include representatives of three health agencies that are going out of existence — the Alliance for Regional Community Health, the Bi-State Regional Medical Program and Health Delivery Systems, Inc.

An IACG nominating committee currently is preparing a list of prospective board members to be voted on by the public.

In addition, nominations can be made by petitions that contain 20 signatures. Such petitions are to be sent before Dec. 25 to:

Inter-Agency Coordinating Group Nominating Committee, Post Office Box 8159, St. Louis, Mo. 63156.

Members of the nominating committee include two Madison County individuals — Bill Kessler, St. Andrew's Hospital, 2130 Central Ave., Alton 62001, and Martha Gauen, No. 5 Briardale, Collinsville 62234.

While the tentative plan calls for half the board members to be from Illinois, some have suggested at public hearings

Mental program cutbacks

Unprecedented funding reductions by the Madison County government are crippling needed mental health programs that had been planned for continuation in 1976, it was asserted here Friday.

The board of directors of the Mental Health Clinic, Quad-City Center Madison County, Inc., 2024 State St., said it has become necessary to drastically reduce its services to the public.

The cutbacks result from curtailment of funds provided through the Madison County Mental Health Fund (Law 708), it was noted.

A statement issued by the Quad-City Mental Health Center board and its executive director, William T. Atkins, relates that the Community Mental Health (708) Board approved an allocation of $165,000 for the Mental Health Center in its December 1975.

Yule drive tops goal

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
The generosity of local residents reflecting the true spirit of Christmas is evident today in the brilliantly glowing Salvation Army Tree of Lights.

The fully illuminated tree, located in Civic Park, represents having reached and surpassed the $20,000 goal in contributions, with 904 bulbs shining on the symbolic tree.

A total of $22,800 in donations has been received to date by the Salvation Army to aid in the agency's traditional role of helping these less fortunate at Christmas time and after the immediate holiday season is over. E. A. "Drew" Karandjoff, 1975 Tree of Lights chairman, announced this morning.

Contributing their personal efforts to the annual yule drive project Saturday were members of the Tri-City Shrine Club, who rang the bells and collected more than $1,700 from shoppers passing the bright red Salvation Army street-corner kettles. The Shrine club was one of several local civic and service organizations helping in this year's campaign.

Today and Tuesday over 500 families will descend on the Salvation Army Citadel, where a special area has been tran-

Fire fatal to 2

Christmas of 1975 will bear bitter memories for Robert Everts of Caseyville, a Granite City Steel employee and a former resident here, whose two small daughters were burned to death in a mobile home fire in Caseyville about 6:35 a.m. Friday.

Mrs. Patricia Everts, 26, was in St. John's Mercy Hospital, St. Louis, in fair condition today with burns over 28 per cent of her body, suffered as she tried to save the children.

Dead are Valerie Everts, 3, and her sister, Donnelle, 2, who were trapped in the rear bedroom of their mobile home and had no means of escape. They were declared dead at the scene by St. Clair County Coroner C. C. Kane at 7:45 a.m. Friday.

It is believed the girls were playing with a cigarette lighter when it ignited a coloring book which set the bed on fire.

Authorities believe the children became scared and hid when the fire started. One was found on the bedroom floor and the other was found on top of the dresser.

Mrs. Everts was awakened by the flames and smoke and was able to get two other children, Tina, 7, and Bobby, 5, out of the mobile home before they were injured. When she tried to return to save the infants, she was burned and had to turn back.

A neighbor told firemen he found Mrs. Everts in a nearby yard screaming that two of her children were inside the mobile home, but she could not reach them. The flames already had reached the front door, the neighbor said.

The mobile home and its contents were destroyed. Damage was estimated at $8,000.

Mr. Everts was at another mobile home in the same park when the fire occurred.

Mrs. Everts was taken to Bellevue Memorial Hospital, Belleville, and was transferred to the burns unit at St. John's Mercy Hospital.

Funeral services for the two girls were to be held today at a funeral home here. Details may be found in today's obituary column.

City says data concealed

A defense hearing on a decision by Mayor Paul Schuler to revoke the liquor license of Rico's II Lounge, 3675 Nameki Road, will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday, the mayor announced Friday.

The hearing will be held in the Council Chambers on the third floor of the City Hall.

Mayor Schuler said a "notice of intent" to revoke the license was delivered Friday to Anthony Augustine of Belleville, in whose name the license is issued, setting off four allegations on which the revocation is based.

The mayor said his intention to revoke the license was the result of evidence taken in a hearing last Monday in support of an earlier order by the mayor that Rico's II be shut down for seven days to permit an investigation into a fatal shooting and a stabbing that occurred at the tavern Dec. 8.

In that hearing, Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr., representing the city, reviewed about 20 alleged instances of beatings, thefts or criminal damage to property occurring in or near the lounge since it opened earlier this year. The lounge is located in the rear of the former Biederman's Furniture building.

In allegations cited by the mayor as basis for his intent to revoke the liquor license, Schuler asserted that "employees and agents" of the establishment had concealed knowledge of the case "with intent to prevent the apprehension of the offender or offenders (in the shooting and stabbing case)."

The seven-day shutdown order expired last Monday, the same date as the hearing, permitting Rico's II to reopen for business Tuesday night.

The mayor's notice of intent to revoke the license and to conduct the hearing for defense testimony Tuesday morning set out the following allegations:

"That you have allowed to take place on your premises numerous fights, assaults, aggravated assaults, batteries and aggravated batteries by patrons, your employees and your agents in violation of the City Code and Illinois Revised Statutes.

"That another disturbance occurred on or about Dec. 8, 1975, wherein a shooting and stabbing occurred on your

Many to lose GI Bill tuition

The plight of thousands of post-Korean War veterans who will lose G.I. Bill eligibility is currently a major concern for veterans' groups, according to Terry Campbell, coordinator of Veterans Affairs at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The bill provides partial funding for college attendance. Such concerns were discussed at the winter convention of the Illinois Veterans Congress (IVC), which Campbell attended last week at Illinois Central College in East Peoria. Campbell said that in a discussion with legislative assistants of Senators Charles

Percy and Adlai Stevenson "it was revealed that of the estimated 80,000 to 90,000 veterans attending college in Illinois, roughly 20,000 will be forced to terminate their education. This is because the U.S. Congress has failed to enact legislation to extend G.I. Bill eligibility." He said the estimated figure of 20,000 veterans being forced out of college is approximately 25 per cent of the total veteran population on college campuses. The veterans' benefits will end in May. "These figures represent only Illinois," Campbell said. "It is easy to see the disastrous effect this could have nationwide." According to Campbell, the IVC has gone on record as supporting immediate passage of legislation to remove current restrictions on G.I. Bill eligibility. The organization, which represents 60 educational institutions and veterans' agencies throughout the state, is urging all veterans to join in getting the legislation passed. "The IVC hopes to keep information flowing and get veterans' groups to work together to provide a united front on issues affecting veterans," Campbell said.

6 Demo national delegates, 3 alternates in 23rd District

John P. Touhy, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, announced Friday, that the State Board of Elections has allocated the 189 delegates and 33 alternates to the 1976 Democratic national convention. A total of 155 of the delegates and 72 of the alternates will be elected from Congressional districts at the March 16 primary election. The remaining 14 delegates and 11 alternates will be chosen at the Democratic state convention by a procedure to be announced later. The numbers of delegates and alternate delegates allocated to the 23rd Congressional District are six delegates and three alternates. Any person who wishes to file as a candidate for delegate or alternate delegate from a congressional district can do so by filing nominating petitions, statement of candidacy, a loyalty oath and a statement of Presidential preference, if any, or uncommitted status, at the office of the State Board of Elections, 1020 S. Spring St., Springfield, Ill. 62704, from Jan. 7 through Jan. 14. The number of signatures required in this district for nominating petitions is 555. Chairman Touhy added, "We hope that all Democrats in Illinois, whether young or old, white, black, yellow or brown; Catholic, Protestant or Jew; man or woman; foreign born or native born; of any ethnic background; of all economic status—that all Democrats participate in the delegate selection process in 1976. "We have a unique opportunity in the Democratic Party to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States to guide us through the years ahead. We want all voices heard as we meet this challenge and Land use in the St. Louis area and the United States will be examined in a one-hour television special, "The Wilderness Echo," to be telecast at 7 o'clock tonight and repeated at 8 p.m. Saturday on KETC-TV Channel 9.

A spokesman said, "Because of our pioneer heritage, Americans still see themselves as a people shaped by the frontier experience."

"The tension between our needs as an increasingly urban people and our ties to the wilderness presents a unique difficulty in land use policy determinations."

The one-hour special produced by KETC-TV gives historical background of land and its management, and examines current land use issues in St. Louis, San Francisco, New York City and other areas.

Questions to be posed by the program include: "How is land acquired?" "Who determines land use policy?" "How much citizen input is considered in land use decisions?" "What is open space?" and "What are the psychological effects of the 'urban squeeze'?"

Participants in "The Wilderness Echo" include: Dr. Glen E. Holt, chairman of urban studies at Washington University; Dr. Wayne Fields, assistant professor of English at Washington U.; Carolyn Toft, Community Development Agency; Dr. James T. Little,

40th anniversary event

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Bauer, Rural Route One, Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary at a reception beginning at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at St. John's United Methodist Church, Second and St. Louis streets, Edwardsville.

Hosting the reception and a buffet dinner to be served from 4 to 6 p.m. will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaBlance and Mr. and Mrs. David Bauer.

The honorees were married on Dec. 26, 1935 at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church South, Montgomery City, Mo., with the Rev. Fred Armstrong performing the ceremony.

They lived in the vicinity of the Chain of Rocks Canal, near Granite City, until 1951 when they moved to Edwardsville.

Mrs. Bauer is a former teacher in the Granite City School District and presently is serving as librarian at St. John's Church in Edwardsville. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Segar.

Her husband worked 23 years at Granite City Steel Blast

Furnace Division from where he retired in 1966. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer of Granite City.

The guests of honor have four grandchildren, Mark and Kenneth LaBlance and Kerri and Edward Bauer.

Miss Virginia Segar and Mrs. Mary Evans, sisters of Mrs. Bauer, will assist at the reception. The Bauer Circle of the United Methodist Women of the church is in charge of the buffet supper.

Invitations have not been sent and all friends and relatives are invited to attend, according to a family spokesman. They also requested no gifts be sent.

BEAUTIFUL SIGHT. With over 5,000 twinkle lights, the Christmas season is presented in an array of bright colors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Karen) Bridick, 1125 McCambridge Ave., Madison. Due to the energy crisis, the home has not been decorated since 1972. It won first place honors both in 1971 and 1972 in a greater St. Louis area outside lighting contest. The lights are turned on from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. Bridick estimated it took at least 50 man hours of work in placing the lights. (Press Record Photo)

First graduates of S. Ill. law school

Southern Illinois University-Carbondale's law school is awarding degrees this month to its first six graduates—including one student for whom the road to a doctorate in law has been two and one half years and 50,000 miles long.
Graduation of the first students "shows that the law school is now firmly established," said Hiram H. Lesar, dean of the school.
The school enrolled the six graduates—and 81 other students—when its doors were opened in August 1973. The six are finishing ahead of their classmates because they took summer school courses.
"I consider it an exceptionally well-qualified class," the dean said. "Certainly, it ranks among the best in the country in terms of our admission standards." On the average, said Lesar, the school accepts only one of every 10 applicants for admission.
One of those who got in—and now is getting out—is 35-year-old Terry W. Finley. For Finley and his pregnant wife, Janet, graduation means the end of a particularly long road.
Finley has been living in a Carbondale apartment while his wife lives in Moline. On weekends or at semester breaks, either Finley or his wife drives the 640-mile round trip between Carbondale and Moline so the couple can spend some time together.
"Not every wife would do this," said Finley. Mrs. Finley teaches first grade in Beltsford, Ill., near Moline.
The couple decided to drive back and forth between the two residences because of the tight job market for teachers, and because Finley hopes to practice law in the area in which Moline is located.
The law student estimated that he and his wife together put an average of 10,000 miles a semester on their cars. He has been in school five semesters. The fall term ended Saturday. Finley and the other five graduates plan to take the state bar examination—required before they can practice in Illinois—in February.
They won't actually get their diplomas until May, when they will be members of the first full graduating class of about 75 law students. SIU-C holds graduation exercises only after the spring and summer semesters.

The other five law graduates are:
David N. Barkhausen, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barkhausen, Rt. 1, Jonesboro; Bruce Burkey, 30, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Burkey, Walnut; Donald Lowery, 28, son of Mrs. Frances Wilcox, Rt. 1, Mackinaw; Gary D. Sibley, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Sibley, Rochester, Ill.; and Gary L. Smith, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd V. Smith, Sycamore.

Collector plates mark nation's 200th year

A collector metal plate of the 1776 Bicentennial license for Illinois will be available for sale, starting Jan. 2, Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett has announced.
The plate will be priced at $3 and will initially be sold over the counter at the three Secretary of State Motor Vehicle facilities in Chicago and two locations in Springfield, Centennial building and the Dirksen Parkway facility.
Mail orders may be sent to Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, Bicentennial Collectors License Plates, Centennial building Springfield, 62756.
"The plate, good only for display, is designated after our 1776 license in red, white and blue," Howlett explained. "It will carry USA-200 in the center with 'Collector' displayed vertically on both sides."
Issues of the collector plate follows a state statute which was passed in the recent session of the state legislature. It gives the secretary of state the authority to design and manufacture a facsimile plate for public sale.
Kelley Jordan, an elementary school student in Normal, designed the winning entry for the Bicentennial plate in a statewide contest. Over 400,000 students submitted entries.

Environment charge against Highland's city power plant

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency on Friday charged the City of Highland with operation of three coal-fired boilers at its municipal power facility, 501 N. 9th St., without the required permit, and with violation of state noise pollution control regulations.

The case was prepared by the Illinois EPA and filed before the Illinois Pollution Control Board.

Dr. Richard H. Briceland, director of the Illinois EPA, said state regulations require a permit from the agency to insure that operations of this type do not pollute the air.

"To receive a permit, the applicant must, among other things be in compliance with state pollution control regulations.

"Without that permit — without the Illinois EPA review — we have a potentially serious situation. Highland residents have no assurance that their city is taking the necessary steps to control pollution — the necessary steps to protect their health."

In addition, the noise coming from mechanical equipment within the building is also a problem.

"Most people don't think that noise pollutes. But, noise, like any other pollutant, can hurt us. It can damage our hearing, depress property values and interfere with our sleep, speech and emotional well-being," Dr. Briceland concluded.

The agency is asking the board to fine the city up to $10,000 for the alleged violations and up to $1,000 for each day they continue.

In addition, it is asking the board to order Highland to cease and desist from further violations and to obtain the necessary permit.

The office of the Illinois attorney general will act as counsel for the Agency.

In another case Friday, the Illinois EPA charged Pile Bros. Trading, Inc., 1200 N. 1st St., National City, with constructing and operating a pollution control equipment and an auto shredding process without the required permit.

Madison men sentenced

Wavie G. Shumate, 21, Madison, was sentenced Thursday in St. Clair Circuit Court to serve five to 15 years in prison for allegedly taking indecent liberties with a child.

A co-defendant in that case, Gary Lee Craig, 19, Madison, was sentenced to serve five years probation on the same charge.

Shumate was found guilty by a jury and Craig pleaded guilty to the same charge.

They were charged in a July 20 incident at the Interstate Motel on Route 203 north of East St. Louis, involving girls, ages 11 and 12.

A third defendant in that case expected to be called for trial in January.

Sentence three men to prison

James V. Riggs, 20, of the 4100 block of Division St., Pontoon Beach, has been sentenced in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville to serve two to six years in prison for the burglary of Ralph's Texaco, 2200 Madison Ave., Aug. 2.

Riggs was found guilty by a jury Nov. 12 of burglary. Police allege he and the juvenile were found near the scene within a short time after the burglary and there was evidence connecting them with the offense.

Sentence for Riggs was pronounced by Circuit Judge William L. Beatty.

Also in Circuit Court, Judge Moses Harrison III has pronounced sentence on two local men who have pleaded guilty to burglary.

In connection with an Illinois Bureau of Investigation case which climaxed in 22 arrests in September.

Michael E. Scott, 21, of the 3700 block of Ruth Drive, was sentenced to serve consecutive terms of one to three years and two to six years in prison. He was arrested for alleged unlawful delivery of morphine and alleged delivery of heroin.

Randall Parker, 19, of Paul Drive, Mitchell, was sentenced by Judge Harrison to serve two to six years in prison in connection with the same case. He was arrested for alleged unlawful delivery of heroin.

The checks which are for varying amounts, depending on the number of family members, allows a family to select its own choice of food items.

The procedure is a departure from previous Christmas seasons when food baskets were packed and distributed from a central pickup point.

Letting donors of $25 and more to the Salvation Army Tree of Lights, include:

Norman C. Gardner (two); Naomi C. Gardner (two); Claude S. Echols; Anthony Venci; David F. Gordon (three); Steven E. Bristol (four); VFW Auxiliary; Gilbert Roff; Gabriel Shrine 78; St. Elizabeth Nurses; BPO Elks Lodge 1063 (four).

J. C. Blume (two); Edward Miller; Kasta Voislow Conaway; Frank Wondra (eight); William Davis (four); and Clifford Stephenson (ten).

FORCED ENTRY Jacqueline Ishum, 2301 Independence Drive, reported that sometime after 7 a.m. Friday thieves removed the sash moulding from the lower pane of the kitchen door to gain entry, ransacked her home and took a color television set and jewelry.

that up to 85 per cent reside in Missouri.

At a meeting Friday of the Executive Advisory Committee of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, the committee went on record as favoring a minimum of one polling place in each county.

The motion was made by Matthew Melucci, administrative assistant to Nelson Hagauer, chairman of the Madison County Board.

Hagauer effective Jan. 1 becomes head of the Gateway Council, which at one time sought to be the new health systems agency.

Some hospital and medical officials voiced opposition this fall to Gateway serving as the federally-mandated health "umbrella" agency, and a compromise worked out with the IACG led to the plan for Gateway to designate 12 elected officials to serve on the 60-member board.

The nominating process relates to the other 48 positions on the proposed board. The agency is to be formed in early 1976, and an application for federal funding is to be submitted by Jan. 15.

Budget proposals list $1,034,400 for 1976, including $671,000 for staff salaries, largest of which would be $40,000 for an executive director.

A $50,000 tentative budget item for purchase of new furniture was criticized Friday by Gateway's Executive Advisory Committee, members commenting that HSA should try to utilize furniture from the three regional health bodies that are to cease operations.

Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel Corp., and Hank Sangster, an employee, have been named defendants in a four-count suit seeking $50,000 in each count, filed in Madison County Circuit Court by John C. Hagarty.

VERSATILE ATHLETE. Miss Cherry Sharp of Granite City is shown during SIUE field hockey competition. She also engages in the other two women's sports at the university—basketball and softball.

Dislocation fails to stop Granite City woman athlete

She doesn't let obstacles get in her way.

Even with an injured hand, Cherry Sharp of Granite City exhibits the same drive and determination which have allowed her to excel in all three women's sports at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Miss Sharp, now in her third year as an SIUE student, has been a member of the women's field hockey and basketball teams all three years and has played softball for the past two years.

She hopes to again make the softball team when the season starts this spring. She is currently playing women's basketball for SIUE and during one of the five nights of weekly practice she had an accident that dislocated one of her fingers.

The injury kept her from participating in the team's opening exhibition game against MacMurray College. But in the team's first four regular season games, Miss Sharp was out there, dislocated finger and all.

"I play for my own enjoyment," she emphasized, "because I really love sports. But it does mean a lot of hard work which takes up a lot of time, especially on the weekends."

She explained that she also has another incentive for playing sports: "Even though I play because I like it, I also know that the experience will help me to get a job."

"Most high schools are now going intercollegiate, so they're needing women who can teach physical education as well as coach teams."

She agreed that women's sports at SIUE are finally coming into their own. "We're able to get more facilities and things that we need than when I first started playing in 1973, such as a training table, a whiplash for the locker room and a new softball diamond and hockey field. And just last spring we got new bleachers."

The number of spectators has increased," she added. "For field hockey especially, we had quite a few more spectators than we had in previous years."

"High schools in the area are beginning to hear about women's sports at SIUE, so a lot of the schools are coming to watch some of our games. During the field hockey season, most of the area schools watched at least one of our games."

In Miss Sharp's opinion, "The better our teams become—as our players acquire more experience—the more spectators we're going to get."

In conclusion, she said, "My favorite sport is basketball—I just love it. The one thing I'm trying to do this year that I didn't do so well last year is practice in the same way I play the game. That is, even at practice, to go all out."

WINTER RESIDENTS on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville seem to be huddling and talking it over before testing the icy waters of Tower Lake.

May alter park sports fee for non-residents

A temporary injunction restraining the Granite City Park District from declaring a park district rule of eligibility "arbitrarily, unreasonably and unnecessarily creates and distinguishes between two classes on non-residents, thereby resulting in discrimination" against Miss Krakowicki.

A special rules meeting will be held by park district officials at the Wilson Park office at 7 p.m. on Jan. 6 in an attempt to prevent a recurrence of the incident by possibly establishing new rules for leagues participating in the park district's 1976 sports recreation programs, and by possibly establishing a new non-resident fee.

A park spokesman indicated that the district might be willing to designate Collinsville as being as acceptable as Madison-Venice-Pontoon Beach-Mitchell residents if the non-resident fee is raised to the point that it offsets actual costs.

At present, the fee applied to non-Granite City Quad-Cityans only has not fully met non-resident costs but has made the overall sports programs affordable.

The complaint, which led to a temporary injunction Oct. 17 by Judge Gibbons, alleged that the park district rule of eligibility "arbitrarily, unreasonably and unnecessarily creates and distinguishes between two classes on non-residents, thereby resulting in discrimination" against Miss Krakowicki.

2-mile relay event planned

Addition of a fourth relay race will add a new dimension to both the Illinois High School Association boys' and girls' state track meet series this spring.

The two-mile relay will be conducted in both the Class A and Class AA boys' series and will be placed as the first event in the 18-event lineup.

An 800-yard medley relay will replace the 50-yard dash in the 16-event girls' lineup.

Both new events will be contested also during the regular season. They were added to balance the opportunities for sprinters, middle distance and distance runners in each series.

In the boys' series, relays contested will be the 400-yard relay, 800 relay, mile relay and two-mile relay. In the girls' series, they will be the 400 relay, 800 relay, medley relay and mile relay.

No state qualifying standards have been set for the two new relays and only the first and second place finishers in the districts in the new relays will advance to the state final meet.

The fourth annual IHSAA girls' state track meet will be conducted the weekend of May 21-22.

The second two-class boys' state track meet will be held the weekend of May 28-29.

Both will be held on the lightning-fast Tartan track of O'Brien Field on the campus of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.

In the districts, the third, fourth and fifth place finishers in each event who equal or surpass the qualifying standard earn berths in the competition at the state meet.

Each entry is guaranteed of playing at least two games, since the tournament include a winner's bracket and a consolation bracket.

Tournament play will begin Dec. 29-30 and conclude Jan. 2 with a championship contest and a consolation finale.

Qualifying standards for 1976 in the boys' series are: 100-yard dash at :10.0, 220-yard dash

:22.6, 440-yard dash :51.0, 880-yard run 1:58.0, mile run 4:28.0, two-mile run 9:38.0, 120-yard high hurdles :15.0, 330-yard low hurdles :38.8, high jump 6.2, pole vault 13.6, shot put 52.0, discus 150.0, long jump 21.6, triple jump 43.6, 440-yard relay :44.0, 880-yard relay 1:32.0 and mile relay 3:27.5.

Fouls ous four South players; Lancers in Belleville East blocked off the inside shooting lanes on the court at the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium Friday night and defeated GCHS South 68-54.

The Lancers' effective blockade helped hold the Warriors' 64 center, John Slay, to six points in the contest.

The Lancers chalked up 15-9, 34-20 and 53-36 quarter leads as they steadily added to their margin.

Fouls took a toll on both teams. South was called for 27 and East 21, and the Lancers proved effective from the free throw line with 22 of 29 attempts. South hit on 12 of 17.

It was 8-8 in the opening quarter until a Lancer was fouled, stepped to the line and made a three-point shot.

He then tossed the ball through the net again when a technical foul was called against South.

After the third foul shot, East inbounded the ball under South's basket and immediately hit a field goal for a 15-9 lead.

Belleville East added a basket and South a charity loss for the quarter score.

Two Warriors left the contest in the third period with five fouls apiece—Jim Nolan, who had 14 points, and Terry Angle, 10 points.

Two more South players went to the bench upon fouling out in the fourth period on fouls—Mike McPherson (18 points) and Ray Slay, six.

South scorers also included Frank Holmes 11, Rick Fancher 10 and Tom Hennrich, two.

East held the edge from the floor, making 23 of 50 shots to South's 21 of 40.

The Warriors had the most turnovers, 20.

And, pulled down the fewest rebounds, 23-22.

Four Lancers, paced by Kyle Pinks, 12 points, scored in double figures.

Basketball Steelers divide weekend games

Coach Bill Ohlendorf's Steeler cagers handed Triad (St. Joseph-Marie-Troy) a 76-58 setback at Triad Friday, but bowed 60-42 Saturday at Collinsville to the best Kahoeks.

Ohlendorf began substituting players during the first period of play against Triad and the Steelers ahead 20-2.

North rolled to leads of 23-9, 40-20 and 58-37 at the quarters. The Granite City team hit on 36 of 49 field goal attempts and only four 15 free throws after dominating in rebounds, 33-17.

Triad netted 19 of 50 shots from the floor and 20 of 26 charity tosses.

North committed the most fouls, 22-15, but had the fewest turnovers, 15-18.

Triad's Bob Gun garnered 20 points in the contest, but North's Rodney Wortham leded the victorious Steelers with 27. Scoring also for the Steelers were Tom Schucker with 15, Rick Spurlock 14, Larry Schleicher 13, Jerry Barnett five and Tim Luehman two.

Collinsville led the contest Saturday from start to finish, hitting on 24 of 50 field goal tries and putting in 12 charity tosses.

North hit 15 of 49 shots from the floor and scored 12 points from the foul line.

Quarters scores were 14-9, 33-26 and 44-30.

North made the fewest turnovers, 17-29, and recovered the most rebounds, 33-29.

Schleicher opened the second-half action with a basket and a layup, but failed to connect, but Spurlock took the rebound and fed the ball inside to Schucker for a two-point, cutting the deficit to five points. But the Steelers missed 10 straight shots from the field and Collinsville connected with four field goals and a foul shot for a 23-9 lead with 1:20 remaining in the third quarter.

Foul shots by Schleicher and Schucker helped make the score 40-20 going into the final period.

Former North High cager James Woodford blocked three Steeler scoring attempts from the floor before North High connected in the fourth quarter.

North tallied five of eight basket attempts thereafter but was outscored 16-12.

Scoring for the Steelers were Wortham with 14, Schucker eight, Spurlock and Schleicher seven each, Laehmann four and Barnett, two.

GCHS South's Warrior matmen now have a 10-1 season record after defeating two weekend opponents here, 46-5 over Springfield Southeast Friday and 53-0 over Normandy, Mo., Saturday.

Southeast gained its only team points Friday on an 8-3 decision over Al Schuler (119 pounds) and on a 2-2 draw with Jerry Ropac (167).

Southern's Brian Basore (98) won 16-3 to open the meet and Barry Forshee (105) and Sam Perkins (112) both won on forfeits.

Victorious also were Jay Peders (135) 7-0, Glen Moore (132) on a pin in 1:46, Darrell Hasty (138) 16-5, Jim Carmody (149) 12-1, Steve Avedisian (155) 4-0, Kevin Wilson (185) 2-36 and Heavyweight Mark Naglich 4-2.

The Warriors swept to victory in each weight class in blanking Normandy.

Basore by 18-3, Forshee 13-2, Perkins in 1:26, Schuler 4-0, Pedra 3-0, Moore 3-33, Hasty 8-0, Carmody 11-0, Ed Fetter (155) 1-38, Steve Avedisian (167) 6-1, Wilson 12-4 and Heavyweight Naglich 1-50.

Basketball Cougars eliminated in tourney

Don Rosselli, in his 32nd year at basketball coach at Youngstown State University, shook his head sadly seconds after his team had lost on a last-second shot to Akron, 64-62, in the finals of the third annual Youngstown Basketball Classic Sunday night.

"Man, if we'd just have had a tenth of the luck we had against Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Friday in our opening game, we'd have beaten Akron," Rosselli said.

In turning back Jim Dudley's team 78-62 Friday, the host Youngstown team hit for a sensational 90 per cent for the first 15 minutes of the first half and took a 46-32 lead at the intermission.

In the Cougars' 78-69 loss Saturday night to St. Francis College of Brooklyn in the consolation title game, SUE ran out of luck, again, at the foul line. St. Francis led the Cougars at the charity line, 12-5.

Youngstown's Rosselli had real cause for bemoaning his bad luck. His team had 10 straight points before Akron got on the scoreboard, only to see the Cougars battle back to pull within two, 32-30, at the half. Then, with less than nine minutes to go, Youngstown built another 10-point edge only to see Akron catch up with eight seconds to go. Jim Abrams hit a 15-footer to win the game and the tournament for Akron.

Dudley was proud the Cougars' play in the Classic. "Our loss to St. Francis... well, we could have won that one. But you have to remember they are an NCAA Division I school that plays nearly all home games in Madison Square Garden and came into the tournament fresh from a big 78-62 victory over Navy."

Even though playing without their 6-7 forward junior, Mike Miller, out with a sprained ankle suffered Friday night, the Cougars battled St. Francis to a virtual 36-33 standoff in the first half. SUE lost the decision to the Warriors via the free throw line the last five as the Brooklyn club hit 10 of 14 chances and SUE four-for-four.

The Cougars had four players in double figures against St. Francis. Showing definite signs that he is learning to "go for the basket," the Cougars' 6-6 freshman Illinois all-star from Morrisonville, Jim Allen, took scoring honors with 17 points.

Vince Barnett, a sophomore forward, came off the bench midway in the second half and hit on five of seven shots to almost pull the game out for SUE. His driving layup at 6:11 to go pulled the Cougars within 65-61, but seconds later SUE senior veteran John Strubberg fouled out.

Pete Catchings, with 12 points and Bobby Herred with 14, were the other Cougars in double figures.

The Cougars will now be off until they take part in the annual Missouri Intercollegiate Conference tournament Jan. 1, 2.

Area's historians recall Prager case with sorrow

MAN OF THE MONTH

Bill Terrell, Area Manager for the Franklin Life Ins. Co. at 1506 Johnson Road, announces that District Manager, Dale Campbell not only was the leading agent in his agency for the month of November but led 100 other Franklin Life Associates to be chosen man of the month for November for the Greater St. Louis Division. This Divisional Honor is awarded each month to the leading producer.

DALE CAMPBELL

As a result of the unprecedented hatred of foreigners which developed after the United States entered World War I, Robert P. Prager, a German immigrant, was lynched in Collinsville on the night of April 5, 1918. He was the first German to be lynched in the nation and the only one in Illinois. Why did it happen in a place so heavily and so favorably influenced by German immigrants for so long?

Germans had entered South Central Illinois in large numbers and the 1830s and the 1870s, and virtually every community boasted a Verein (singing society); a Turnverein (physical fitness club); a Germania Bund (cultural society); and German Lutheran, Catholic, and Methodist churches. German characteristics in home construction, farming, and beer drinking were widely evident; and German parochial schools were well established by the time free public education took root. When war came, more than one fourth of all Americans had German ancestry; but the percentage in South Central Illinois was much higher.

By 1917, however, ethnic characteristics once held in high esteem were scorned, and most communities began programs of Americanization which too frequently led to violence and intimidation. The federal government set the tone by passing three laws whose titles described the types of disloyalty of most concern: the Espionage Act, the Sabotage Act, and the Sedition Act.

By federal Executive Order local authorities were requested to furnish registration cards for all aliens, and a parolee system was instituted in Belleville requiring all naturalized persons to have one "loyal citizen" vouch for them and to accompany them outside the city. Restricted areas were established. Propaganda issued by the national Committee on Public Information encouraged the people to attack everything which might weaken the country's war effort or threaten its security. Suddenly, every German soldier became a beast and every German-American citizen a spy. Mob action and incidents of tarring and feathering increased.

Under pressure, the German language disappeared from schools, churches, and newspapers. The Belleville Turnverein became the Belleville Turners. Mobs attacked German carnival bands; in Staunton a school superintendent called secret service agents to investigate a family whose son failed to salute the American flag during a school ceremony. By decree of the Committee on Public Information sauerkraut became "liberty cabbage." The editor of the Collinsville Herald on Feb. 28, 1917, wrote, "The mass public sentiment in Collinsville at present is in no humor to listen calmly to light or insinuating remarks about America or the war."

It was this atmosphere which Robert Paul Prager—a squat, 33-year-old, unattractive German with a handlebar mustache and one glass eye—was forced to combat. Prager had come to Collinsville to work in the mines and had an obsession to become an American. When he attempted to join the United Mine Workers, he was rejected by the president of the local union for being a socialist.

Prager attacked the official in an open letter to the miners; in response, on April 4, a group visited him, took his shoes, and paraded him through the streets draped in a flag. When he was taken into "protective custody" in Collinsville, rumor reached the taverns that a German spy had been captured, and a drunken mob formed. The mob entered the jail past the mayor of the city; bound the four jailers; removed Prager from the jail; and prodded him barefoot through the streets, forcing him to sing the Star Spangled Banner and to give three cheers for the red, white, and blue. Two miles south of the city a rope was thrown over the limb of a tree, and Prager was hanged.

Governor Lowden expressed official concern over the incident. "I think I can say for the Attorney General's Office and my own," he said, "that every power with which we are vested will be used to the limit to punish those responsible for the violence in Collinsville."

At the trial the defense attorney pleaded "patriotic murder," arguing that as a German spy, Prager was not "worthy in the peace of the people" and that since the officers of the law were not doing their duty, the people became the law. Most of the miners believed Prager was a spy in spite of the facts that he wished to become an American, at no time made a disloyal statement, never attacked an American patriotic activity, and was never formally charged with being a spy.

The jury found the members of the mob to be not guilty although the four police officers who were "over-powered" were tried for dereliction of duty and imprisoned. A farmer seemed to speak for the people of the area when he said, "Well, I guess nobody can say we're not loyal now."

Prager was lynched because he personified hatred for a national enemy, a hatred consciously created by all levels of government, which the people could not express through parades, bond drives, and rallies. The wonder is that Prager alone was hanged.

Membership drive by parents' group

Granite City Chapter 470, Parents Without Partners, is announcing plans for a membership drive and is inviting anyone who is divorced, separated, widowed or never married to contact the group. "The single parent in our society is isolated to some degree," a spokesman commented. "The difficulties of providing both for ourselves and our children a reasonable equivalent of normal family life is increased by that isolation. "The established pattern of community life lacks both means of communication and institutions to enable us to resolve our special problems and find normal fulfillment. "It is the conviction of PWP that we can achieve this through working together, through the exchange of ideas and through mutual understanding, help and companionship which we find with one another. "We ask anyone eligible—custody of children is not a factor for membership—to write P.O. Box 932, Nameoki Station, Granite City, or call 877-0243 or 451-7555."

Familiar Christmas carols and hymns will be sung during the Mass. On Christmas Day, the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at St. Thomas Church in Glen Carbon, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and again at 11 a.m. in St. Bartholomew's Church. Smith to sell two more subsidiaries

A. O. Smith Corporation, which earlier this year announced the sale of two of its operating units, intends to dispose of two more operations, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, said Friday in Milwaukee.

Smith said the board of directors approved plans to dispose of Armor Elevator Canada Limited, which manufactures elevators in Canada, and Bull Motors Limited, a United Kingdom subsidiary whose main product line is elevator motors.

Earlier, the company announced it had sold Armor Elevator Company, Inc., a U.S.-based elevator manufacturing business, and the Meter Systems Division, which manufactures petroleum measuring systems.

Smith said the basic reason the company decided to embark on this divestiture program in 1975 was to improve profits and provide liquidity which will enable A. O. Smith to adequately finance its growth.

The loss on the business disposition, either completed or anticipated, is estimated to amount to approximately $10 million in 1975, Smith said. In addition, discontinued businesses will have an operating loss of $2.5 million to $3.5 million for the year.

Because of an estimated operating profit of $2.5 million to $3.5 million from continuing operations, A. O. Smith expects to report a loss for all of 1975 of about $10 million.

Local 1715 helps ailing

The Christmas mail will bring $20 checks and get-well messages to 31 ill members of United Auto Workers Local 1715 at A. O. Smith Corp.

Willard Herzing, president of the local, and William J. Schaab, financial secretary, said that the working members contributed $750, the A. O. Smith Company $175 and Mercer Ambulance $25 to the Christmas fund.

MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT
Eugene Murphy, 15, was admitted to St. Elizabeth at 10:10 a.m. Saturday with bruises to the nose and right hip after the motorcycle he was riding in a field at the Granite City Army Installation hit a patch of ice, skidded and turned over.

Break-ins at 2 apartments

Two incidents in which a man forced his way into separate apartments at Kirkpatrick Homes, while the occupants were at home, were reported to police during the weekend.

Rose Elmore, 1708 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported that at 7:35 p.m. Friday that while she was in her kitchen talking on the phone with her daughter, a young man broke in her front door, knocking the facing off the door frame, ran into the living room; grabbed her purse from the couch and ran back out the front door.

Ellen Puckett, who also lives in the Kirkpatrick Homes, reported that while she was in her kitchen making coffee at 4:20 a.m. Saturday, a young man broke the glass on the front door, unlocked the door and entered. When she confronted him, the burglar threatened her if she called police, and then left without taking anything.

FORCED DOOR

Thieves forced the front porch door to gain entry to the home of William Lindsay, 23 Jones Park, Pontoon Beach and took a television valued at $78 and an undetermined amount of food.

Park board offered first chance at 19-acre tract

A representative of Morris Realty Co. of Granite City has offered the Granite City Park District first chance to purchase more than 19 acres of property adjoining the park district's West Granite Park, at a cost of $85,000.

Mother of GG women dies

Mrs. Anna Theodora Johnston, 76, of Hillsboro, mother of two Granite City residents, died at 3:35 a.m. Sunday at the Hillsboro Hospital.

She was born in Booneville, Ind., and moved to Hillsboro after her marriage to Homer William Johnston on Aug. 12, 1921. Her husband died Oct. 3, 1958.

Survivors include three daughters, Miss Clarice Johnston, at home and Mrs. Gertrude Southwick and Mrs. Mary Botkin, both of Granite City; two sons, John Johnston of San Diego, Calif., and Harold Johnston, Ballwin, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. Gladys Beales, Winslow, Ind.; two brothers, Ross and James Barclay, both of Evansville, Ind., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at a Hillsboro funeral home. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery there.

The offer was declined by the board of commissioners at a meeting last week, in which board members said funds are not available for such a purchase at the present time, even though the park district would be required to pay only half of the asking price through a federal land acquisition grant program.

Under the federal program, the U.S. Government would supply 50 per cent of the money required, providing the park district can match that amount.

Frank Rea, park district secretary, said the property would be ideal as part of a possible expansion program, but that "our fiscal year budget is already allotted."

Robbery at Jack-in-Box

An armed robber walked up to the service window at the Jack-In-The-Box restaurant, 3330 Nameoki Road, at 6 a.m. Saturday, ordered a cup of coffee and a turnover, and when Kevin O'Shea rang up his order, the robber pulled a blue steel, snub-nosed revolver and said, "Empty the cash register."

According to O'Shea, he put about $60 in a bag and was told by the armed robber to, "Lie down and don't come out back or I'll blow you up."

The robber reportedly fled on foot toward Clark Avenue.

Employees at the restaurant told police they believe the robber to be the same person who came up to the window about 10 minutes prior to the holdup, ordered a cup of coffee, paid for it and walked away toward Clark Avenue.

The robber was described as white, 20-25 years of age, wearing a brown-checked jacket, dark slacks, a scar under the left eye, a mustache and short brown hair parted on the left side.

GEORGE L. OPOLKA, an Illinois Bell testman in Granite City, celebrated 25 years with the Bell System Saturday. A native of Wamac, Opolka joined Illinois Bell in Centuria as a toll tester. He worked for Southwestern Bell in St. Louis in the supplies department and has held various positions in the Bell System's construction and plant departments in the East St. Louis and Granite City areas. He assumed his current post in 1961.

MARRIED. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell E. Allen who were married at Word of Life Tabernacle in an evening ceremony. Formerly Kathy M. Stuart, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Collins, 2525 Stratford Lane.

Allen-Stuart wedding at Word of Life Tabernacle

Miss Kathy M. Stuart, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Collins, 2525 Stratford Lane, and Darrell E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, 2420 Madison Ave., were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Dec. 5 at the Word of Life Tabernacle.

A 6 o'clock service was performed by the Rev. Henry Crippen before an altar decorated with burning red tapers and red bows.

Nuptial selections "More," "Close to You," and "Always" were played during the ceremony by the church organist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a long white gown designed with an oval neckline edged in lace, an empire waist and long sheer sleeves accented with lace motifs.

Matching lace was repeated on the semi-full skirt and also bordered the chapel veil. She held a bouquet of red carnations with white baby's breath.

Matron of honor Mrs. Joyce Whistler, a sister of the groom and bridesmaids Mrs. Laura Bartow and Mrs. Vicky Walton, both sisters of the bride, chose identical long white dresses worn with red velvet jackets. A white fur trim edged the jacket hoods and each girl carried a bouquet of red and white carnations.

The flower girl, Christy Whistler, was dressed in a long red frock embellished with white flowers. She also held a small bouquet of red and white carnations.

The groom chose Jim Whistler as his best man, Danny and Melvin Allen served as groomsmen and Chris Smith and Ray Stuart seated the guests.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall following the service.

The newly-married couple is now residing in Granite City after a wedding trip to Nashville, Tenn. The bride is employed as a nurses aide at St. Elizabeth Hospital and her husband works at McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Corp., St. Louis.

Christmas Eve at St. Peter's

Christmas Eve worship services at St. Peter's Evangelical United Church of Christ, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard, will begin at 7:30 p.m. The traditional carol and candlelight service will include special music by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Robert Hulteson, organist-choirmaster.

The choir will sing: "Jesu Thou the Virgin-born" and "A Babe is Born" by G. Holst; "What is This Lovely Fragrance?" by Healey Willan; "The Three Gifts" by J. Robert Carroll and "Christmas Song" by G. Holst.

Brought To You
By Milton Matthews

How's this for a football oddity . . . Did you know there was once a college football game in which one team did not run or pass the ball at any time during the entire game, and still won it? It happened to Kentucky . . . In a game in the early 1900s, Kentucky decided to kick first down every time they got the ball . . . They did kick on first down throughout the game . . . They never ran the ball and never passed . . . And they won 12-4 by recovering two fumbles by their opponents in the end zone! . . . This oddity is hard to believe but it's been verified by the Kentucky Athletic Department.

Ever wonder how many commercials there are during the telecast of college or pro football games? How many would you say? . . . The national TV networks put in about 45 different commercials during the telecast of each game.

Here's a football quiz for you . . . See if you can identify these men . . . Who was (A) "The Gray Ghost of Gonzaga"? (B) "Old 88"? (C) "Sluggin' Sammy"? and (D) "Jarrin' John"? . . . Here are the answers . . . (A) Tony Canadeo, (B) Tom Harmon, (C) Sammy Baugh, (D) John Kimbrough.

The Handbell Choir will play "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing," arranged by Paul Koch. Tenor soloist Len Thurstrom will sing "Son of Mary" by J. W. Peterson and the violin soloist, Tim Pfeiffer, will play "Largo: Allegro comodo" from Sonata in G. Minor by Giuseppe Tartini.

Hulteson will begin his pre-service organ recital at 7:15 p.m. by playing "Variations of 'Adeste Fideles'" by R. Taylor, "Es ist ein Ros entsprungen" by M. Baumann and "Chorale Prelude on 'Silent Night' from Die Natali" by S. Barber. Mr. Pfeiffer's violin solo will be Romance (Andante non troppo) from Concerto 2 in D Minor by Henri Wieniawski.

The Rev. Robert Kettelhut's Christmas message is entitled, "With A Heart Filled With Joy." Familiar Christmas carols will be sung and the biblical story read. The service will conclude with the lighting of candles and the singing of "Silent Night."

Child Care will be provided for pre-schoolers. Ample parking is provided in the church's lighted lot adjacent to the church. Users will be on hand to assist the handicapped.

Residents of the community are invited to attend, the pastor said.

Mental

November 1976 fiscal year budget recommendation to the County Board's Finance Committee in September 1975.

"The Finance Committee, consisting of J. J. Gramlich, Highland, William L. Little, Alton, Hays Mallory, Edwardsville, Homer Boothman, Collinsville, and Edward Voumard, Alton, reduced this allocation to $103,059 in its budget recommendation to the County Board.

"All members of the Finance Committee, with the exception of William Little, voted to approve this reduction.

"At the same time, while cutting the budgets of major mental health agencies, the committee decided to increase monies to other programs, fund other new non-mental health programs, and allocate money for which the need is uncertain.

"Because of this action by the Finance Committee, the Mental Health Center in Granite City is forced to take several highly regrettable steps:

"1. Discontinue all satellite services presently being offered in Collinsville, Highland and Edwardsville.

"Effective Jan. 1, 1976, this will mean that many citizens in communities outside of the Quad-City area will be unable to obtain mental health services in their community.

"Because of lack of transportation and less available staff time, many citizens will be unable to obtain mental health services at all.

"2. Consultation to schools and other agencies will be discontinued.

"This will prevent mental health professionals from becoming involved in early preventive services to children and adolescents.

"Consultation with teachers and special education personnel in schools is an essential element of community mental health service delivery.

"Early detection of mental health problems is essential to prevent small individual problems from becoming unmanageable and having a detrimental effect on schools and communities.

"3. The board of directors has decided that it will be necessary to lay off three professional positions. The result of this cutback in professional staff is that the center will be unable to provide a competent comprehensive program.

"In addition, waiting lists for services will by necessity rapidly increase—resulting in a greater delay between the awareness of problems and beginning of services.

"The Mental Health Center board of directors at a special meeting regretfully decided to discontinue these services.

"This decision runs contrary to the efforts that have been made by the agency to develop community-oriented, comprehensive professional services that are accessible to all citizens of Madison County.

"The board indicated that these services would be reinstated as soon as money was again available.

"The Center staff will make every effort to continue to serve those residents who are currently receiving mental health services from the agency.

"The Mental Health Center staff and board of directors urge everyone who is concerned about this vital issue to contact the chairman of the County Board, Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City, their local County Board representatives and members of the Community Mental Health Board (708). Names and addresses of these individuals may be obtained by contacting Evelyn M. Bowles, county clerk, Edwardsville," the statement concluded.

premises resulting in death and serious injury.

"That your employees and agents during the investigation of the above said shooting and stabbing at your licensed premises on or about Dec. 8, with intent to prevent the apprehension of the offender or offenders, concealed or aided the offender or offenders and concealed their knowledge that an offense had been committed in violation of Chapter 38, Section 31-5, of the Illinois Revised Statutes of 1973.

"That the licensed premises, a building, in the occurrences and the commission of the offense prohibited by Chapter 38, Section 31-5, is a public nuisance as defined in Chapter 38, Section 37-1, of the Illinois Revised Statutes of 1973.

Meanwhile, a petition drive in which sponsors are seeking from 2,000 to 4,000 signatures asking that the lounge be closed, continued in the area. The drive is spearheaded by high school youths of Calvary Baptist Church who said they hope to present the petitions to the City Council Monday night.

Under a revocation order, the lounge operators would have the right of appeal to the Illinois State Liquor Control Commission which would be required to either confirm or reject the revocation.

In the event the state commission upholds the revocation, the operators would have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court. The lounge would remain open pending appeals in either case.

PROJECT CAREER SUCCESS: Under a grant by the Illinois Office of Education, the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center is conducting a new program "Project Career Success." Using video tapes developed by

Venice Tech begins two new programs

"Project Career Success" and "Adult Performance Level" are to new adult programs now in operation in adult basic education at the Venice Technical Center that have been made possible through grants by the Illinois Office of Education.

"Project Career Success" has three parts. Part one is an individualized review for students a month before they take the General Educational Development (GED) test. Video tapes developed by Kentucky

Educational Television are used in this review, according to K. Duane Rankin, director of the center. In part two, career counseling is offered to help students decide what to do after they take the GED test and part three of PCS is a pilot study of a totally new approach to adult basic education.

This new approach is called the "Adult Performance Level," or the APL, Rankin said. Instead of the usual 3 R's (reading, writing, and arithmetic), there are five subject areas in the APL: consumer economics, occupational knowledge, government and law, health, and community resources.

This is much different from the GED since the APL teaches everyday life skill in these five areas that an adult must have to function in society.

For example, the APL program teaches how to open a savings account, what the different types of life insurance are, or who to contact to make a consumer complaint.

Rankin added.

Some states already award high school diplomas based on the APL, and many educators believe it will become a part of all ABE centers in five to ten years.

STEREO TAKEN

Betty Jean Boyd, Apt. 94, Gareche Homes, Madison, reported at 11:36 p.m. Friday that someone forced the back door of her home and took a stereo tape player valued at $377.

Yule meeting of Pack 7

Pack 7 sponsored by St. Joseph Church held a Christmas Pack meeting last week at St. Joseph School with 55 in attendance. Andy Timko, clubmaster, welcomed everyone and introduced Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mangiaracino as newcomers to the pack.

Den 1 under the direction of Stan Yureck gave the opening with a story of America, followed by the pledge of allegiance. Those participating were Jonathan Kettelhut, Mike Jarragin, John Moore, Alan Yureck, Donald Baxter, David Seilheimer, Bobby Carpenter, Steven Knogl and Joseph Mangiaracino.

Den 2 led by Mrs. Rosalie Buente presented a skit "Santa's Noisy Christmas Eve." Those participating were Tom Buente, Joe DeShon and Robbie Favier.

The Cubby Award for the month's attendance went to Den 1.

Stan Yureck presented Joseph Mangiaracino with the Bobcat Award. Induction into the Webelos was conducted by Rosalie Buente for Tom Buente, Joe DeShon and Robbie Favier and Tom Mungovan. Lt. Col. Robert Mungovan the Webelos leader stated that they will meet on Monday evenings at 6:30 in the school basement.

Ron and Don Hook read their reports on "What a Good Christmas Means." This is an achievement in Webelos rank.

Mrs. Buente thanked the pack and parents for their cooperation as she has resigned after being a den leader for over two years and all her original eight boys have entered Webelos. Her Den presented her with a half-dozen long-stem roses and a speech was read about her efforts for the boys.

Rev. Robert Kettelhut led the group in the singing of Christmas carols. Following group participation each child was presented a bag of fruit and a Santa favor, filled with candy, his pine wood derby kit for the Pinewood Derby in January. Ice cream, cookies and beverages were served. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hook and Cheryl, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Voss, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace DeShon, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Cornelison and grandchildren Kalani and Clara, Mrs. Gaenese Baxter, Mrs. Linda Knogl, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, George Vanesler, Martha Jarragin, Frank Greathouse, Michelle Jarragin, Joe and Carol Mangiaracino and Gina, Susan Seilheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carpenter, Chad and Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Yureck and sons, Mrs. Mary Ann Ramsey and John Mungovan.

Gift exchange at Bunko-Ettes party

Mrs. Juanita Blevins, 2907 Denver St., entertained the Bunko-Ettes Club at her home on Thursday evening.

A gift exchange was held, followed by games. Those winning prizes were Mesdames Evelyn McCollegan, Julia Portell, Dorothy Barnett, Angie Buehler and Ruth Partney.

Others attending were Mesdames Leona Delatoye, Rose Druhe, Helen Lipchik, Helen Santiago, My Ebling and Florida Batson.

Members also discussed a trip they made to the Plantation Dinner Theater last week. They were accompanied by a guest, Mrs. Nancy Mullen.

Party for residents of nursing home

The Madison County Nursing Home and Shelter Care Auxiliary held a Christmas party for residents of the nursing home, serving a luncheon of attractively-prepared foods.

After the luncheon, the group retired to the second floor for an afternoon of entertainment provided by Joe James and his orchestra.

James and Ron Mitchell accompanied vocalists, Piccolo Pete, Andy Belobradic and Wayne Kopchuk. After their presentation of several holiday songs the residents, staff and visitors enjoyed dancing.

MUSIC AUDITIONS FOR GRADUATING STUDENTS

The department of music of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will conduct auditions for graduating high school students and transfer students on Feb. 28 and April 24.

Robert Schieber, associate professor of music and chairman of the music audition committee, said a number of music scholarships will be awarded to outstanding students who audition.

"Students who would like to pursue their musical studies in college are encouraged to participate in one of the auditions," he said. Auditions may be arranged by writing to Schieber at the SIUE department of music.

Record corn, soybean yields

By RON CORNWELL
County Extension Adviser

The 1975 growing season approached the ideal in most parts of Illinois. And it produced a state average corn yield of 116 bushels per acre and a soybean average of 36 bushels per acre. Both the corn and soybean yields are records. And there have been only five other years during the last 45 when both corn and soybeans broke previous records.

Why were corn and soybean yields better in 1975 than any other year?

It's easy to point out some important differences between 1974 and 1975. But was the 1975 growing season more favorable than that of 1972 when we also produced record corn and soybean yields?

If rainfall, temperature, and days of sunshine for the two years were compared, there would not doubt be differences. But it probably would be difficult to interpret what these differences mean to corn and soybeans.

W. D. Scott, U. of I. agronomist, feels research, rather than variations in the growing season, is the basic reason that 1975 was a better year than past years.

Research has resulted in a steady improvement of the hybrid corn plant. It resists lodging better today than it did five or 10 years ago.

Tolerance to crowding has been greatly improved. Twenty years ago, 16,000 plants per acre at harvest time was the goal. Now it is more like 22,000 to 24,000. Six thousand additional half-pound ears per acre would be more than 40 bushels per acre.

Research also has provided a better knowledge of the nutrient needs of both corn and soybeans. Poorly nourished plants cannot take advantage of a favorable environment. There must be enough phosphorus, potassium, nitrogen, and other essential elements in the soil.

The same is true for soybeans. While soybeans have their own source of nitrogen, they must have an adequate supply of the other nutrients.

Herbicides share the credit for 1975's record yields. The substitution of herbicides for mechanical methods has improved weed control. But of equal or perhaps greater importance is the fact that corn and soybean roots are no longer pruned with cultivator shovels. Insecticides and fungicides also helped crops respond to the 1975 season.

Siphoning is a handy technique for emptying a pool or a stopped up sink. But if your car, lawnmower or tractor is out of gas, don't try to siphon gas from another vehicle even on an emergency basis.

The day after Christmas, 1974, in another state, a person was found lying dead beside his automobile. During the investigation, it was immediately apparent that the victim had died while siphoning gasoline from his car's fuel tank.

It was obvious, too, that death had come quickly because the siphon was still working, spraying gasoline on the ground. Authorities attributed the death to suffocation by swallowing gasoline.

Clinical studies have shown that petroleum distillates can cause serious consequences if inhaled or ingested. The greatest danger, according to medical authorities, is not the effect in the stomach, but in the lungs.

When gasoline is taken into the mouth, for example, a certain amount may enter the lungs, where it spreads out and causes immediate irritation and tissue damage. The destruction of the tissue in turn causes the lungs to fill with fluid and the victim literally drowns in his own fluid.

This brings up two points of safety. One is don't siphon gasoline for any purpose. Second, don't store gasoline in soda bottles or other unmarked containers where children might accidentally drink the contents.

Square, Oriental and social dance classes

The Tri-City Area YMCA will again be offering square dancing lessons for adults, beginning Jan. 6. The first meeting will be free of charge and will function as an "ice breaker and mixer."

The class will then meet every Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. Bob Boyd of the Checkerboard Squares will be the caller and instructor.

Cost for the class will be $1 per night for non "Y" members and 50 cents per night for YMCA members.

Social dance classes will be offered by Kay Jones on Thursday evenings from 8 to 10. The class will run for seven weeks and cover such basics as cha cha, rumba, swing and fox trot, and others upon request. Cost for the class is $7 for "Y" members and $11 for non-members.

Oriental belly dancing is regarded by the YMCA staff as "an excellent way to firm and shape abdominal muscles and increase coordination and grace." Both beginning and advanced classes will be offered on Monday evenings from 8 to 9 (beginners) and 9 to 10 for advanced.

Kay Jones will be the instructor. Cost is $8.50 for members and $12.50 for non-members for a seven-week course. More information on dancing classes is available at the "Y," 2001 Edison Ave., 876-7200.

Hartigan calls for state to continue serving the aged

LI. Gov. Neil F. Hartigan said last week Illinois should establish a permanent Senior Action Center similar to the model program that his office operates.

"We have seen increased use of our Senior Action Center resources by other agencies serving the elderly and disabled," Hartigan said. "We believe this is evidence of the ombudsman program's maturity and of its acceptance as a permanent, viable state agency."

Hartigan's office operates a federally-funded model program, the first of its kind in the nation.

A senior advocate and senior volunteers field the inquiries on a statewide toll-free hot line. The program served 11,805 callers — including many with multiple requests — during the first 11 months of 1975.

A majority of the calls from senior citizens concerned forms of "circuit breaker" tax relief, such as sales tax benefits, property tax grants and homestead exemptions.

Hartigan and a coalition of statewide senior citizen organizations supported legislation this year to provide $34 million in sales tax relief benefits through annual cash grants to households with incomes of less than $10,000. The law assures elderly and disabled persons a yearly sales tax relief grant of $50 to $100.

"We take a friendly, humane approach, and we find the senior citizens are eager to learn more about the benefits available to them," Hartigan said.

A lonely, elderly widow who uses a walker was encouraged to accept transportation to a nutrition center where social contact was also considered an important ingredient.

Another person needed transportation to visit a doctor. Township support was mobilized to complete the arrangements.

An Internal Revenue Service claim of $61 in back taxes plus penalties was dropped after a homeowner's problems with a furnace repair man. Senior volunteers interceded to resolve the problem, and, in turn, relieve the individual's frustration and level of anxiety.

From Jan. 1 through Nov. 30, calls relating to tax relief totaled 6,382; social security, 1,101; and financial matters involving food, transportation, public aid and employment, 1,335.

Health problems were the subjects of 709 calls; housing, 578; and legal matters, 259. Information was supplied to 590 callers, and another 851 inquiries dealt with a wide variety of needs.

Hartigan said the office processed numerous Department of Public Aid problems in supplemental security funds, services and food stamps for the elderly. Most of these problems could be resolved locally within a reasonable time, he said.

Problems in dealing with the Social Security Administration, however, are "monumental" by comparison, he said, considering the time required to obtain information for the senior citizen and the time required to correct information held in the data bank.

Hartigan has been involved in dealing with problems of aging since he became lieutenant governor at age 34 in January 1973.

Known statewide as an advocate and ombudsman for senior citizens, Hartigan wrote the legislation that led to creation of the Illinois Department on Aging, and he has been operating an ombudsman office during his entire tenure.

The toll-free number for Hartigan's Senior Action Center is 800-232-6565.

Y course in 'lifestyles'

The Tri-City Area YMCA will offer an experimental course in alternative lifestyles beginning Jan. 8. The course will be geared toward groups working together on projects concerning different phases of alternative lifestyles.

Donn Hornberger will conduct the course. The group will meet every Thursday evening from 8 to 9:30 p.m. for 10 weeks.

Hornberger explained, "The first night we will meet each other and briefly take a look at some of our options. We will form our project groups that evening. The process used will be to teach each other in a study group approach.

"The second evening the topic of 'What Can We Do Without, or, How Self Sufficient Can We Become' will be explored. The third evening, the topic 'Living On The Periphery' will be viewed."

"From the fourth evening on, the project groups will take the major portion of each meeting time. There are also the possibilities of outside field trips."

"The important aspect of this course will be not only what we find out about health foods and needs; shelters and how to locate and build them; energy, what kinds can we develop; food, how to get, grow, and cook it; and other subject areas, but how we go about finding out.

"Possible research books for those interested would be the Foxfire series, Mother Earth News, or the Robin Hood Handbook," Hornberger said.

"We hope to have a good turnout so we can develop as many areas as possible. The class will be limited to those 18 and older. If the course goes well there may be a possibility of offering it to younger age groups."

For more information on the course Quad-Cityans may call Donn Hornberger at the "Y" (876-2200) or stop in at 2001 Edison, The Y is a United Way Agency.

3 charged at accident scene

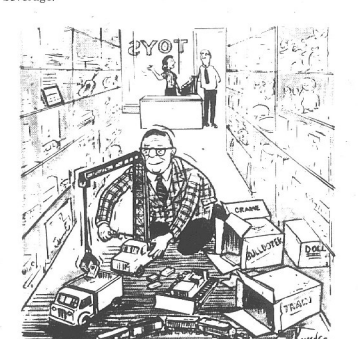

An accident involving a squad car and a private vehicle at 11:20 p.m. Thursday resulted in a traffic citation being issued to the motorist and the occupants of a passing car, which stopped at the scene, also receiving tickets.

Patrolman Dave P. Polivick was traveling north on Edison Avenue with the red lights and siren activated, responding to a call from Rico's II lounge, when the squad car was involved in a collision with an auto eastbound on 25th Street, operated by Lester D. Hahn, 2429 Madison Ave. Hahn was charged with failing to yield to an authorized emergency vehicle.

While the officer was still at the scene, an auto occupied by two men halted nearby and reportedly one man yelled, "Hey, look at the pig's car."

The occupants of the second car, Paul L. Howell, 17, of 3212 Lakeview Drive, and Ronald G. Paschedig, 18, of 1688 Clark Ave., were charged with illegal transportation of alcoholic beverage.

BREAK INTO GC DODGE
Patrol officers hearing an alarm at Granite City Dodge, 1911 Madison Ave., at 3:20 a.m. Friday, discovered a glass pane in an overhead door had been broken and an attempt to kick open another door and use bolt cutters on a padlock had been made. An inventory was being taken Friday by the owner, Jack Schmacker.

Bloodmobile here this week

Healthy Quad-Citizens between the ages of 17 and 65, despite their heavy holiday schedules, have been urged by the Tri-Cities Chapter of the Red Cross to donate blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be at St. Elizabeth Church two days this week.

Blood donors are asked to appear Friday, the day after Christmas, at St. Elizabeth Church to give blood from 2 p.m. until 6:45 p.m., and again on Saturday, at the same place, from 9 a.m. until 1:45 p.m.

Twenty-eight churches are participating in the program which is sponsored by Church Women United.

The requirement for December is 14,200 pints of blood which will be supplied to 167 hospitals in Missouri and Illinois. Hospitals in the metropolitan area receive 98 per cent of their blood supplies from the Red Cross.

Millie Meehan, executive director of the Tri-Cities Chapter of Red Cross, said some hospitals receive all of their blood requirements from the Red Cross. She noted that the need for blood is the same during the holiday season that it is during other times of the year.

"We realize people are busy at this time of year, but the need for blood never stops," she said.

Special skating sessions at rink

Two special ice skating sessions will take place during the Christmas holidays at Wilson Park rink, Harold Brown, Granite City Park District superintendent, said today.

The extra sessions are scheduled from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Christmas Eve (Wednesday) and on New Year's Day.

A 25-cent admission fee will be charged Granite City residents with Park ID cards, while non-residents and those without IDs will be required to pay 50 cents, Brown said.

Discuss building Jan. 5

The Chouteau Town Board of Auditors voted Monday night to call a special meeting for 7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 5, to discuss final plans for constructing a town hall and community center building.

Since federal revenue sharing and community development grant funds are to be used to construct the building, officials of the community development office at Edwardsville, as well as the architect, John Rapp, have been requested to attend the meeting.

At Monday night's meeting, the board approved payment of bills totaling $3,573 from road funds, including $2,530 from the permanent hard road fund, and $1,043 from the general road fund.

FURNITURE GONE

H. W. Murray of Carlinville, owner of a furnished and rented dwelling at 2016 Twelfth St. Granite City, reported at 2:50 p.m. Thursday that a couple who rented the house had left the premises taking with them all the furniture. A list of missing items is being compiled.

Schools, stores, banks to close on Christmas

Quad-City public and parochial schools will dismiss classes after Tuesday for the Christmas vacation. Students will return to school for regular classes on Monday, Jan. 5.

Retail stores in the area, for the most part, also will close Christmas day, but will reopen for business on Friday.

Federal employees will have an extra holiday on Friday, Dec. 26, when they will not be required to report for work.

The First National Bank in Madison will close at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Christmas Eve, remaining closed Christmas Day and resuming regular banking hours on Friday. All banks and financial institutions in the area will close Christmas day.

Libraries in the Quad-Cities will be closed during the holidays on different days and hours. The Granite City public library will close on Dec. 24 and 25 and on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1, with normal hours observed on Dec. 26 and Jan. 2.

Madison library will close on Dec. 24, 25 and 26 and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1, to reopen for regular hours on Saturday Jan. 3.

There is a possibility the library also will be closed on Jan. 2, according to the librarian, Mrs. Louise Lewis. Venice library opens at noon each day but will close at 2 p.m. on Dec. 24, all day on Dec. 25 and 26 to reopen on Dec. 27 at noon. They also will be closed on Jan. 1 and will resume the regular schedule at noon on Friday, Jan. 2. Dec. 31 hours will be from noon to 2 p.m.

Madison expects favorable report by evaluation team

An evaluation team of the Illinois Office of Education reportedly found a great deal of improvement in the Madison School District over the past three years, according to John Palchiff, superintendent of schools.

Palchiff told the board of education at a Thursday night meeting that the district expects a written report from Springfield within the next few weeks, detailing areas of improvement and areas that still need improving.

Palchiff said that the evaluation team indicated it is well satisfied with the instructional material, teacher corps program, school advisory committees, the inservice workshops, participation with the National College of Education in regard to equal educational opportunities, food services, housekeeping, the general attitude of teachers, and the behavior and attitude of the students.

He indicated the IOE team felt the board policy manual needed updating and some new job descriptions needed in some areas, along with new certification procedures.

The board hired Miss Christina Sandor as a third-grade teacher at Blair school, beginning Jan. 5; hired Miss Roberta Pearce as a second-grade teacher beginning Jan. 12, also at Blair school; and hired Miss Sharon Leleniewski as a fifth-grade teacher at Louis Baer school beginning Feb. 1.

Eldon Richards, maintenance supervisor for the school district, reported that the new restroom on the first floor at the Madison High school is in use.

The board gave permission to advertise for bids on girls' athletic uniforms and for janitor supplies.

After discussing the possibility of a year book for the junior high school, the board decided not to have one. Board members said they believe that very few junior high schools have them now and the practice is generally outdated.

Friday, Jan. 2, Dec. 31 hours will be from noon to 2 p.m.

Two charged with burglary

Edward D. Brame, 41, of 635 Barkley Ave., Mitchell, was charged with the burglary of the mobile home of Jerry O. Sanders, 380 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, at 9:30 p.m. Thursday.

A 16-year-old boy was also charged by Pontoon Beach with burglary of the mobile home and sent to the Madison County Detention Center.

Brame was released on $400 cash bail.

Police alleged they found several of the stolen items from the home on Brame when he was arrested at Lake Drive and Village Lane, including stereo head phones, microphone, wire for stereo speakers and 13 cassette tapes.

Pontoon Beach police recovered the two speakers behind the mobile home, but have not recovered the stereo. Police were alerted to the burglary by neighbors.

Christmas 1975

To Our Friends & Citizens of Madison

As the New Year approaches we are happy to extend our Holiday Greetings to our friends and the citizens of Madison and show our appreciation for the good will and joy they have shared with us during the past year.

We realize that our Nation's 200th Birthday is rapidly approaching and we would like to share the following thoughts with all of our friends and citizens. In hopes that it will lead to a very successful year for everyone:

Let us bury all that has been unpleasant, unkind, mistaken and unprofitable, and with the opening of this New Year, look forward to greater, better, and brighter prospects. Let us forgive and forget all personal grievances and assist others along those more pleasant paths we have chosen for our feet to tread. Life is worth the living if we make it so. Peace comes to the Peacemaker, and comfort to those who comfort others.

IMPORTANCE OF EXPLORING. George J. Hill II, M.D., standing, vice-chairman of the Great Central Area Exploring Committee, explains the importance of expanding the Exploring program within the Cahokia Mound Council at an executive board meeting of the local Scout council.

Explorer program greatest area for growth in council

The youth population in the Cub and Boy Scout age level of 8 to 14 is declining nationally as well as in this area, Dr. George J. Hill II, a professor of surgery at Washington University, St. Louis, told the executive board of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council Thursday night.

At the same time, however, youth at the Explorer age level, above 14, remain about the same and in some areas is increasing, Dr. Hill said.

He addressed the Cahokia Mound Council on the importance of expanding the Explorer program within the council, an area that takes in the southern half of Madison County and Bond County.

Dr. Hill, a volunteer, is vice-chairman for Exploring in the Great Central Area which includes Southern Illinois, Missouri and Kansas.

The speaker emphasized that the local Scout council has a fine council Exploring committee and several strong points (13), but that in reality this represents only 200 young men and women while there are over 5,000 at the Explorer age level within the council area.

He noted that the Explorer program is the best investment of monies the council could make and "As business men you all realize you invest where your greatest growth potential exists."

Chairman Hill said the board should give serious consideration to including in the council budget monies for Explorer program materials, promotional material and to consider hiring a full time Explorer executive.

The majority of Explorer units are career oriented.

"Career Exploring is a relatively new term in our country. Youth needs to know about the free enterprise system, about the profit motive, about the honesty of business, about career educational requirements and opportunities," he said.

Exploring is attractive to business as a program with real public relations value. Business needs people with integrity and people who have a genuine interest in that occupation or profession. Young people want to know about different businesses, professions and trades on a first hand basis.

"Schools want their students into useful interesting jobs. The Boy Scouts of American through its Exploring Division, recognizes the need and acts as a catalyst in bringing about all these factors together," Dr. Hill said.

"The growth chronology of the Boy Scouts of America, over the past 60 years, clearly points the way to success. When money is available to add Exploring executives, each professional will attract 350 additional volunteers who, working with the volunteer Explorer committee, will provide a quality program for 1,300 to 1,500 young people within three years," Dr. Hill said.

Nationally, one half the potential members in the Boy Scouts of America are Explorer-age young people.

Dr. Hill was introduced by and was the guest of W. F. "Mick" Strange, Madison, vice-president for Exploring for the Cahokia Mound Council.

Drunk driving laws enforced

For some, occasions for drinking during the holidays are endless. For these, Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer today had a few emphatic words:

"We may not win popularity contests with those who can't say 'no thanks' soon enough, but we are determined to see that our drinking and driving laws are strictly and fairly enforced," he said.

According to the chief, research and study information circulated from the International Association of Chiefs of Police indicates that alcohol is a factor in as many as half of all traffic accidents. The Christmas to New Year round of festivities often includes more alcohol than many should take.

As personal countermeasures to help against overloading at holiday parties, the chief quoted these tips published by the National Safety Council:

Understand alcohol and what it does.

Be aware of what alcohol does to you.

Know your limitations and stay within them.

Chief Veizer promises a no-nonsense approach to holiday traffic problems because some folks "can't hold their own."

"Our department will be out with all the manpower we can muster to protect you — and from your own dangerous drinking habits."

Senate candidate for responsive government

Gertraude Wittig of Edwardsville has announced as a Republican candidate for the State Senate from the 56th Legislative District.

"I became a candidate so that the voters would have a choice," she said. "My concern is for government responsible and responsive to the people."

She is 47 years old and a professor of biology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. She was born and raised in Germany, where she also obtained her doctoral degree. A naturalized citizen, she has lived and worked in the United States since 1958 and has been at SIUE since 1968.

Prior to joining SIUE, Gertraude Wittig carried out research in insect control at Berkeley, Calif., as a Fulbright student and in research centers of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Maryland and Oregon.

ATSIUE, she obtained for her department federal funds for both of the undergraduate programs federally supported, and also directed these programs.

Some of her teaching has been in areas related to health and medicine. In recent years, she has served extensively in professional, educational and women's organizations.

She is currently past president of the Central States Electron Microscopy Society, member of a board committee of the Illinois Education Association, and coordinator for higher education of the ILEA Women's Caucus.

She says she has been "interested in administration and government for a long time." Her partisan involvement was "triggered after a Nov. 5 lobbying trip to Springfield."

According to the candidate, "government by and for the people requires that a legislator obtain as much information about all sides of the issue, encourage the people to participate in this process, and explain her or his vote to the constituents."

She concludes that "government must serve all the people."
